About Margherita College

Margherita College was established in the year 1978 and is located on sprawling pollution free campus of 26 (Twenty six) bighas of land in the North-Eastern state of Assam guarded by the majestic Patkai Hills in the Head quarter of Margherita Sub-division. Margherita lies exactly 567 kms east of Guwahati. The Patkai hills which forms a gateway of India in the North East are situated in the South-Eastern corner of Assam between 26.30 North latitude and 95.15 East longitude making the natural boundary between Assam and Burma presently Myanmar. Margherita, the township near Ledo from where the historic Stilwell road connects the North-East region of India with China via Myanmar is the centre of what could be a rich economic zone of South-East Asia. The College is the eastern most Provincialised College in Assam catering to the higher academic needs of a diverse population including several indigenous and ethnic communities.
