

7.1.8. Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities

Response: In pursuit of its vision and mission, Margherita College recognizes, values and takes into account the differences in people's backgrounds, experiences, knowledge, needs and skills to create a cohesive community and effective workforce. Diversity includes keeping an open mind to diversities among cultures, languages and socio-economic environments. Keeping a view on this, the classroom lectures of Margherita College is bilingual, as and when required, and study materials are provided both in English and Assamese. Assamese, Bengali and Hindi is offered as a course in all the three streams, B.A., B.Com., B.Sc. Margherita College follows the rules and regulations related to socio-economic categories inclusion in its admission process.

Margherita College recognizes, values, and considers differences in people's backgrounds, experiences, knowledge, needs, and skills in order to create a cohesive community and effective working population. Maintaining an open mind to differences in cultures, languages, and socioeconomic environments is part of diverse culture. Keeping this in mind, Margherita College's classroom lectures are bilingual as needed, and study materials are available in both English and Assamese. All three streams, B.A., B.Com., and B.Sc., offer courses in Assamese, Bengali, and Hindi. Margherita College adheres to the rules and regulations governing the inclusion of socioeconomic categories in its admission process.

In keeping with the national value of inclusive India, the College has developed a Tribal Study Centre to collaborate with the various tribal communities in the area.

Margherita College promotes tolerance, communal harmony, and inclusion among students and faculty by commemorating national and international commemorative days, events, and festivals. Some of the memorabilia days and other activities for promoting student harmony and inclusion are listed below.
