

Margherita College

Margherita College was established in the year 1978. It stands proudly on a sprawling pollution free campus of twenty-six bighas of land. It facilitates higher studies in three streams – Arts, Commerce, and Science in general, and nineteen departments in particular. It has successfully accredited by NAAC.

About Margherita

The town Margherita lies 567 kms east of the state capital of Guwahati. It is located in the easternmost district of Assam, at 27.28°N 95.68°E and has an average elevation of 162 metres (531 feet). The Dihing River flows through Margherita and the majestic Patkai Ranges are visible from the town. Margherita is famous for coal, tea, timber industry. The region is rich in flora and fauna. The name Margherita actually derives from the Italian queen and dates back to the late 19th century as a token appreciation for the Italian Chief Engineer of a rail section Chevalier R Paginini who supervised the construction. Margherita is well connected with all the major towns and districts both by road and rail. The NH 38 passes through the town. Margherita is at a distance of 534.6 km from the state capital of Guwahati and just 50 km from the district headquarter of Tinsukia.

From the Principal's Desk

Welcome to Margherita College, Margherita.

Margherita College is a centre of higher education and learning aiming to strive to endow the students with a platform, and in extension, helping them broaden their horizons. Our college authority has continuously attempted to maintain and upgrade our academic, co-curricular and infrastructural qualities. Our faculty members are committed to the overall upliftment of the students. They are like sculptors who chisel the students both in their academic pursuits and personality development.

We try and make sure that the students of our college are exposed to all that is required for them to excel in the present day academic and professional environments.

I wish the prospective students all the very best.
